

“Your program makes everyone proud to be an American. You send them away feeling good about themselves and their association.”

Mike Roscoe, Past President, National Association for Pupil Transportation

“ You make any meeting planner look good because of the quality you infuse into your presentation. The fourth annual conference was a great success because it began on a very high note (no pun intended) thanks to you.”

Joseph A. Paull, Ed.D. Assistant Executive Director, RESA VII, Fairmont, WV

“ I have invited Gary to be a major presenter at the American Association of School Administrators convention in New Orleans. This indicates the value I see in his performances.”

Roland C. Haun, President, American Association of School Administrators

“ The standing ovations you receive say it best---it says that you have met some very important needs”.

William T. Nallia, President, Educational Advances, Frankfort, Kentucky

“Your message is outstanding...the highlight of many state and national conferences including KASA on more than one occasion.”

V. Wayne Young, Executive Director, Kentucky Association of School Administrators

“It was a superb 90 minutes of solid entertainment, high expectation, strong character beliefs, and meaningful thoughts spoken from the heart. You are multi-talented and able to deliver your message in a manner which captivates the audience. You are one of the best presenters I’ve ever had the privilege of experiencing. We laughed, cried and hugged our way through your performance.”

George Tarbuck, Associate Superintendent, Perry Local Schools, Perry, Ohio

“One of our more experienced teachers summarized your presentation by declaring, “that if this does not motivate you to give 100% effort, then you must already be dead”

John D. McClearn, Superintendent, Hopkins County Schools, Madisonville, Ky

“I personally was moved by your words and music, and could see that many others were touched also. I would heartily recommend you to other convention planners”.

Harry Toothaker, Communications Mgr, Alabama Council For School Administration

“All the people who heard you went away with a message that will serve them well as they serve the students of Tennessee.”

Sarah White, Director, School Nutrition Program, TN State Department of Education

“I noticed several people in tears and one Superintendent hugging each of his principals”.

Dr. William Thames, Exec Dir, SE/SC Educational Cooperative, Eastern KY University
